About

La Frontera Arizona EMPACT – Suicide Prevention Center is a nonprofit 501(c)(3) corporation.

Proceeds raised help support the Rally Point Arizona program, an initiative of La Frontera Arizona EMPACT – Suicide Prevention Center providing services in Maricopa and Pinal counties with offices in Tempe, Phoenix, Glendale, Apache Junction, San Tan Valley and City of Maricopa.

The Rally Point Arizona Military Navigator program provides military service members, veterans, and their family members with crisis prevention, intervention and peer-based support and resource navigation services.

Rally Point Navigators assist individuals and families with mapping out and helping to access needed services. The Navigator also helps with the coordination of these services and follow-up support with the goal of promoting self-sufficiency, resiliency and lessening the probability of future crisis.

Donating

Donating to La Frontera Arizona EMPACT – Suicide Prevention Center through its Rally Point Arizona program is a great way to support La Frontera Arizona EMPACT – Suicide Prevention Center and its work to support Arizona military service members, veterans and their family members while at the same time qualifying you for a chance to win an incredible prize!
